UNIQUE STONE AND TIMBER COTTAGE

Ever dreamed of living in a stone and timber cottage in your own private sanctuary. This property is one of a kind, and is set on 7 acres, amongst beautifully established gardens with a creek running below the cottage with a great swimming hole.

This 3-bedroom cottage has had so much love and hard work put into it over the past 27 years, which shows in all aspects of the property.

A timber kitchen has large slabs of timber for bench tops, which have a story of their own on how they were made for the home. A huge chopping block sits between 2 stoves. A combustion stove adds warmth and character to the home and can also provide hot water. And an upright gas stove...
